JOHNSTOWN, September 1.-Captain

Hamilton states that the force of workmen employed by the State is gradually being lessened. No orders to abandon work has yet been received from the Governor, however, but on account of the small force em-ploved but tittle can be done. Captain Hamilton says it would be a great pity to discontinue the work now. He says that since he took charge, on the 8th of July,

The $300,000 is about all expended, as durlarger force had been employed, and the blasting and other work was more expennow and begin at the lower end of the boroughs and clean out all the cellars, turn over the debris, remove all dead bodies and Legislature ought to be called and enough money appropriated to do the work right, and then it a little energy was put into the business everything could be cleaned up in a short time, and Johnstown be left to take care of itself. Captain Hamilton thinks the proper thing for the Commonwealth to see that the place is again made habitable.

The Captain has been making some sur-veys lately, and he says he finds that a rise of four feet in the Conemaugh river would overflow the whole lower part of town. This rise is sure to come, and the town will be overflowed if something is not done to pre-

ALLEGED PAITH CURE PEOPLE Pray for a Young Man's Recovery, Who

Dies From Neglect. FINDLAY, September 1.-Considerable feeling has been aroused in and about Bluffton, a small town southwest of this city, over the actions of a band of alleged faith cure people. Bert Williams, a young man about 17. years ald, while at a neighbor's house, ran against a stake it in good shape, expecting to call daily and take such care of it as was needed to heal it properly.

That day, unfortunately for the boy, the "faith cure people" showed up and made him believe that if he had faith the Lord would perform a miracle by healing him by prayer, The stitches were removed from his leg and the prayers were begun. No one ever made better time in a race for the grave than did this young man after he placed himself in the power of these people. He was taken to the sanctuary of the faith cure in Bluffton, where their supplications were kept up, their victim, in the meantime, dying by inches. He was given no atten-tion whatever beyond the prayers. His leg nearly rotted off, and the smell became so offensive to the neighborhood that he was again removed to his uncle's house, where he died and was buried. This is the fourth or fifth victim of the faith cures in that locality. One case was a consumptive from Findlay, who was sent to Bluffon and prayed over for two months and sent home, Veazey, of Vermont, to be inter-State Com-field narrowed to Campbell, of West Vir-

In the early part of the race Charles J. Noyes, ex-Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, appeared to many to be a winner. He had the backing of several strong Western Senators, but made the mistake of failing to secure any personal advocate of importance at home. The selection of Judge Veazey makes the commit-tee stand three Democrats and two Republicans, counting Judge Cooley a Republican.

It also means to say that national regula-tion of railroads is in no immediate danger of control of the grangers, and there never was any truth in the assumption that ex-Commissioner Aldace F. Walker would be made a prodigal son of. When the Inter-State Railway Association went to pieces, Judge
